Three Generations of Quality

Pompei was established by Luigi Davino back in 1909. He called it Pompei because it was located near Our Lady of Pompeii Church. Luigi married Carmella and they had four sons and a daughter. The family lived above the bakery and worked many long hours making only bread and cheese pizza.

After returning home from World War II in 1944, Luigi's sons helped run the business. His eldest son, Alphonso, ran the bakery for 30 years with the help of his brothers Ralph, Solly, and "Uncle Rogie." When Alphonso retired, his nephew Ralph continued the family business.

Since then, Pompei's menu has expanded to what it is today. Using only the freshest and finest ingredients, I will continue to carry the family tradition that Luigi instilled in 1909. Pompei is proud to say that we've been serving families for three generations.
